Why is an imprudent man like a sick oyster? Because he can't keep his oyster shut.

Why should potatoes grow better than any other vegetable? Because they have eyes to see what they are doing.

It is stated that the reason why they have so much bad weather in Philadelphia lately, is because Spring is in jail.

A Dutchman suggests a plan for giving an extra kick in their tails. It is by mixing pulverized cork screw with their feed.

Mrs. Harris says if a man wants his children to look like him, the fewer joints he makes to California the better. Observing old lady, that.

The Panama Railroad does not progress towards completion as fast as was anticipated. It cannot reach Panama before January, and possibly not then.

The Sultan of Turkey is having a block of stone handsomely prepared for the Washington Monument, to represent the Ottoman Empire.

Shanghai fowls grow of such size in Iowa that they use them to plow with instead of jackasses. They are fully as strong, and a great deal more clumsy.

A young man in Rochester, having been crossed in love, seized a cotton ball and dashed his brains out. His remains were taken up on a chip and forwarded to his friends.

A woman is a good deal like a piece of ivory. The more you use it, the closer she clings to you. A wife's love don't begin to show itself till a Sheriff is after you.

The report that a cord of wood exploded in Williamsburgh, on Wednesday, and killed the foreman of engine No. 4, needs confirmation. We have sent over a reporter to ascertain the facts.

A little child hearing a sermon, and observing the minister very vehement in his words and gestures, cried out, "Mother, why don't the people let the man out of the box?"

Past horses soon tire, and fast men are a good deal like them. The youth that "goes it strong" at twenty, will find himself at five-and-forty with a tomb-stone growing out of his head.

Two men go fishing, one catches a bit and the other a nibble—the latter from a sunfish, and the former from a musquit. Wanted to know—which came out ahead?

The local of the Albany Transcript states that no man under thirty-five can sit beside nine yards of solemn without becoming afflicted with a palpitation of the heart.

The story started by the London Times that Kossuth's house in London had been searched and a large quantity of munitions of war found therein, turns out to be a hoax.

When you visit an ignoramus, particularly of the feminine gender, dress as showily as possible. A dunces values visitors not by the contents of their heads, but by the value of the hats which are placed over them.

"Oh! Doctor," said an elderly lady recently, to Dr. H—, the celebrated bone-setter, in describing the effect of a diseased spine, "I can neither lay nor set." "In that case," replied he, "I should recommend the propriety of resting."

A man in New Bedford, who had backed out from a promise of marriage, was prosecuted and imprisoned by his intended. The injured fair one paid his bond in jail for two weeks, when he surrendered and they were married.

The Knick, for May, tells a good one. A Knickerbocker attending the funeral obsequies of Henry Clay at San Francisco, said of the statesman: "Mr. Clay never had to have been buried on land. They should have thrown him into the sea, and a continent would have been built upon his body."

POETRY.

From the Louisville Journal.
"JESUS WEPT."
—BY "KONA," OF LOUISIANA.

A human grief—an earthly gloom;
The Savior's spirit wept.
And by the cross and silent tomb
Of Lazarus, He wept!

Yes, Jesus wept—and lo! on high
The angels ceased to sing,
While every spirit in the sky
Low drooped his shining wing.

The Son of God with grief had striven,
He mourned o'er mortal ill,
And every voice was hushed in Heaven,
And every harp was still.

The Savior's eyes grew moist and dim
And sad with human tears,
And the angels wept with Him,
Through countless glittering spheres.

Oh, holy grief—that thus could move
The God who sat in Heaven,
And concentrate a boundless love,
Within one human form.

Bright, wondrous watchers bore away
That spiritual gem
To beam—o'er more immortal ray
In God's own diadem.

When many a deep and crushing wrong
Was heaped upon Him here,
He mourned o'er the misguided throng,
But shed no selfish tear.

The cross to Calvary He bore,
Within a man's grasp;
The torturing crown in meekness wore,
But only once He wept.

But once the waves of sorrow rolled
Above His sacred head,
And sweet-struck gazers cried, "Behold
How Jesus loved the dead!"

He who but truth and wisdom spoke
Had said that Lazarus slept;
Oh! was it strange that he should wake
When Christ above him wept?

What wonder, if the stars of even
Hushed their light in His tears,
To tell the startled hosts in Heaven
Of our Redeemer's tears?

If burning souls, which have grown bright
In God's perpetual smile,
To see Him wept, had veiled their light,
And paused in grief the while?

And was it strange that eternal Choir,
Amazed, should cease to sing,
That tears should steal o'er every lyre,
And dim each golden string?

Well might the roses of the sky
In their immortal bloom,
Grow pale to hear the Savior sigh,
Beside a mortal's tomb.

Perchance were unknown systems blaze,
Of which we can but dream,
Immortal souls through endless days
Still chant this wondrous theme!

Perchance with sweet and mournful thrill,
Forever under deep,
Eternal echoes murmur still,
"The gentle Jesus wept."

MISCELLANEOUS.

From the American Presbyterian.
How to Spend the Sabbath.

The law of the Sabbath as given by God, forbids all labor either of body or mind, six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work. But the seventh, is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt do no manner of work. The only exceptions to this rule, are those made by our Saviors, works of necessity, or mercy.

We have no right to labor at our ordinary vocations, whether it employs our physical or intellectual faculties, nor to travel on this day. It is a day of rest for him.

1. It forbids the labor of servants and of children, and in short all that is under our charge.

The precept includes all both our children and servants, as well as ourselves. They stand in the same relation to God as ourselves, and we have no right to make any appropriation of those whom he has already appropriated to himself. And still more. Those that are at the head of families, are bound to see that all under their care refrain from any worldly employment, and sanctify that day and keep it holy, in the sight of God.

2. The command of God forbids us to cause our domestic animals to labor; for they are justly entitled to rest as much as ourselves.

3. The command is to rest. Hence it is as much forbidden the employment of our time in the pursuit of pleasure, as of wealth. It is a profanation of the sabbath as much to spend it in riding, visiting, journeying, or any form of amusement, as in labor. On the contrary, the precept for the observance of the Sabbath enjoins the keeping of the day holy, that is sanctifying it, or setting it apart for a religious purpose. To rest from labor is commanded, but this is not all, we are to occupy it in the service of the Lord.

Amongst these are—1st, reading the scriptures, meditation, and prayer in secret. 2nd, The special instruction in religion of the young and those committed to our care. Hence we are bound to make such arrangements in our families as are consistent with this duty. Social worship. This under the Mosaic and Christian dispensation, has always formed an important part of the duties of this day. The Sabbath is one seventh part of time, that is one day. Hence the whole of it is to be consecrated to the service of God. To employ any part of it in labor or amusement, or in trifling, or secular conversation, or reading, is a violation of the word of God. It does not begin with the ringing of the bell for church, and end with it, but it includes the whole day.

Again, it is set apart for the whole race of mankind, that is, for all men. Statesmen, legislators are under as great obligation to keep it as private citizens; the rich and powerful as much as the poor and dependent.

Nor are any so insignificant as to be excused from the obligation. The child is commanded to keep the day holy as much, as his parent, and he sins against God, as much, by playing as older persons do by laboring on God's holy day. I would impress these remarks particularly ly upon the young. One of the first indications that a young person is becoming vicious, is his disrespect for the Sabbath, and his neglect of public worship. The youthful Sabbath-breaker rarely fails to become a profligate and an abandoned man. Let a young person, therefore, under all circumstances keep the Sabbath day holy, and let him strenuously avoid the company of those who are inclined to violate it.

A Tight Place!

While sitting at our desk the other day and laboring assiduously, with pen, scissors and paste, to make out a readable paper for our patrons, we were suddenly "frightened from our propriety" by the hasty entrance of a gentleman, exclaiming, "For God's sake, help me to see what's the matter! I've got some dreadful thing—scorpion or snake—in the leg of my pantaloons! Quick—quick—help me!"

"What's the matter?" asked we.

"The matter!" he exclaimed, "oh, help me! I've got something here that has just run up my leg! Some infernal scorpion or lizard, I expect! Oh, I can't let go; I must hold it! Oh, there, there, I feel it move then. Oh, these pants without straps! I'll never wear another pair open at the bottom as long as I live. Ah, I feel it again!"

"Feel what?" we inquired, standing at a respectful distance from the gentleman.

"I don't know what it is," answered the gentleman; "help me to see what it is. I was just passing this pile of rubbish here, in front of your office, when I felt it dart up my leg as quick as lightning—and he held his fist more tightly. If it had been the neck of an anaconda, we believe he would have squeezed it into a jelly."

By this time two or three of the news boys had come in; the clerks and packing boys, hearing the outcry, stopped working, and all hands surrounded the sufferer, with mingled looks of sympathy and alarm.

"Bring a chair, Fritz," said we, "and let the gentleman be seated."

"Oh, I can't sit," said the gentleman; "I can't bend my leg—if I do, it will bite or sting me; no, I can't sit."

"Certainly you can sit," said we; "keep your leg straight out, and we'll see what it is you have got."

"Well, let me give it one more hard squeeze—I'll crush it to death," said he, and again he put the force of an iron vice upon the thing. If it had any life left, this last effort must have killed it. He then cautiously seized himself, holding out his leg as stiff and straight as a poker. A sharp knife was procured; the pants were cut open carefully, making a hole large enough to admit a hand; the gentleman put on a thick glove, and slowly inserted his hand, but he discovered nothing. We were all looking on in almost breathless silence to see the monstrous thing whatever it might be; each ready to scamper out of harm's way should it be alive; when suddenly the gentleman became, if possible, more agitated than ever.

"But heavens!" he exclaimed, "it's inside my drawers! It's alive, too, I feel it—quick! quick!—give me the knife again!" Another incision was made—in went the gentleman's gloved hand once more, and lo! out came—his wife's stocking!

How the stocking ever got there, we are unable to say; but there it certainly was, and such a laugh as followed, we have not heard for many a day. Our friend, we must pardon us for doing so. Though this is all about a stocking, we assure our readers it is no yarn.

A Rich Case.

Some years ago an Irishman was knocked down and robbed. He accused a man of having committed the robbery. In due time the case came up for trial; the Irishman being upon the stand was cross-examined, after having sworn positively to the guilt of the prisoner, by one of our keenest lawyers, and something like the following was the result:

"You say that the prisoner at the bar was the man who assaulted and robbed you?"

"Yes."

"Was it moonlight when the occurrence took place?"

"Divil the bit iv it!"

"Was it starlight?"

"Not a whit of it; it was so dark that you could not have seen your hand before you."

"Was there any light shining from any house near by?"

"Divil a bit iv a house was there anywhere about."

"Well, then, if there was no moon, no starlight, no light from any house, and so dark that you could not see even your hand before you, how are you able to swear that the prisoner is the man? How did you see him?"

"Why, yer honor, when the spalpeen struck me—may the devil fly away with him—the fire flew out iv my eyes so bright you might have seen to pick up a pin; you could, be jabsers!"

The court, jury, counsel and spectators exploded with shouts at this quaint idea, and the prisoner, directly after, declared not guilty and discharged.

One and a half million of dollars have been contributed by the Baptists of the United States during the last five years for the establishment and endowment of collegiate and theological institutions.

The New York Tribune says, the light which the Washington Union throws upon the opinions and purposes of the administration is some times no better than that which a man sees when he runs his head against a post.

Franklin's Toast.

Long after Washington's victories over the French and English had made his name familiar to all Europe, Dr. Franklin had chanced to dine with the English and French Ambassadors, when, as near as we can recollect, the following toasts were drank:

By the English Ambassador:
"ENGLAND.—The Sun, whose bright beams enlighten and fructify the remotest corners of the earth."

The French Ambassador, glowing with national pride, but too polite to dispute the previous toast, drank—

"FRANCE.—The Moon, whose mild, steady and cheering rays are the delight of all nations, consoling them in darkness and making their dreariness beautiful."

Dr. Franklin then rose, and with his usual simplicity, said:

"GEORGE WASHINGTON.—The Joshua, who commanded the Sun and Moon to stand still; and they obeyed him."

THE PRICE OF KISSES.—In New Orleans, a "nice young man" was fined five dollars for kissing a young girl, which for some time was considered the lawful value. Recently, however, two cases similar to that in New Orleans have been adjudicated, one in Boston, where the fine was ten dollars, and the other in Rochester, N. Y., where the fine was eight. In view of these higher decisions of court, the editor of the Providence thanks heaven that he lives in New Orleans, and pines from the depths of his pocket book, the unlucky bachelors of Boston and Rochester.—Madison Banner.

Undoubtedly, kisses ought to be paid for at different rates in different localities, for, as a general thing they are sweeter and more delicious in some regions than others. For instance, they are worth more in Hopkinsville than anywhere else, for our girls are prettier and sweeter than any others.—Hopkinsville Whig.

In behalf of the Boyle ladies we deny the truth of the sentiment contained in the last sentence. Why, a sight of our pretty girls would "put out the eyes" of our friend of the Whig; and a taste of their blooming lips would take away his breath!

THE GLASS HOUSE.—A New York correspondent of the Boston Transcript writes as follows:

The palace, which it was announced would be open to visitors on the 1st of May, is about half completed, and does not promise to be ready for visitors before the 1st of August next. This mischievous delay has caused mortification to those who have approved the speculation, and has tended to depreciate the value of the stock, which, within a few weeks, has fallen from $170 per share to $135, the par value being $100 per share. The board of directors have just made a new issue of stock, amounting to $400,000, making the whole capital $900,000.

The great and rapid rise of iron, since the contracts were signed has added some $50,000 to the expense of the edifice.—The iron castings were furnished by 12 different foundries. They are all completed, but cannot be put up except in dry weather. The palace will probably stand open for five years; so our friends from the country need not be in a hurry to crowd upon us, all at once, this summer.

The Tribune says the principal productions to be seen about the crystal palace will be drain shops and drunkenness.

PREDICTION FOR CALIFORNIA.—W. G. Bates, who is writing a series of interesting letters from San Francisco to the Detroit Daily Advertiser, in his last epistle says:

"For a farmer who does not wish to feed out in six months the earnings of the other, and who has capital enough, California I think, is the most desirable State in the Union. In winter, so soon as the rain has sufficiently softened the earth, the ploughing begins and continues on all April. This winter the number of acres of land ploughed up has been larger than before. The enormous high price of all kinds of provisions last summer has had the effect to stimulate agriculture, and in my opinion within two years California will produce her own pork, her own flour, her own necessities of every name and kind. When this is done, and her gold crop is carried up to $100,000,000 per annum, as it will be within four years from this date, we shall be something of a State. Mark my words, and let those who live remember them. In the year 1858 the exports of California will be larger in value than the entire assessable real property of Michigan including both your railways."

"Is there any man now going to foreign courts to whose absence the country objects, as being a public loss?"

This is from the St. Louis Democrat, the political and personal organ of Col. Benton. Such a bitter sarcasm upon the foreign appointments of the present administration shows that the old Prairie Bull's wrath and indignation are aroused by what he sees at Washington City. He may have Pierce and the whole Cabinet upon his horns. Hurrah for the big bull!

[Lou. Journal.]

A farmer of Burlington, N. J., has a hog which he intends to exhibit at the approaching World's Fair. His live weight is 1307 pounds! He is eight feet and six inches long, and seven feet seven inches in circumference.

THE CONTRAST BETWEEN LICENSE AND NO LICENSE.

is clearly apparent in the city of Lexington. During April 1852, when License was in full blast, there were 17 commitments to the work house, 12 regularly discharged during, and five were still in, at the end of the month. During April 1853, when no license prevailed, there were 7 commitments to the work house, all regularly discharged, and at the end of the month the Work House WAS EMPTY. The prediction that the rooms occupied as coffee houses, would be without tenants, has been falsified; they are profitably rented to good tenants, in honest business. The city, during the past five months, has enjoyed a peace and prosperity never before equalled or surpassed. No murders, no riots, and only a very few fights, no crowds of drunken men on the streets, day and night, Sunday and week days, to annoy and disgust the passers-by, and scare the women and children. All reputable citizens agree that the Lexington of 1853, is far, far preferable to the Lexington of any previous year.

Kentucky New Era.

An Extraordinary Freak of Nature.

A man by the name of Geo. W. Houston, living a short distance from this place, (Sparrs), has a cow which has brought forth a most uncommon calf. The calf is now two weeks old, living and likely to live. It has two distinctly formed nostrils, two tongues, and four eyes, and will, I think, have four horns. In all other respects it is formed as usual, is playful, and a very pretty calf. It can very heartily with either mouth. Save three or four hundred persons have been to look at it, and consider it a very great curiosity. Such a man as Barnum could, I have no doubt, make a fortune by exhibiting this as a show. Mr. Houston, to whom it belongs, has no turn that way, and would sell it if he could get a fair price. He talks of exhibiting it at Caroline County Court, which takes place on the 21 Monday in June next.

Singular Discovery of a Murder.

About two years ago a vessel left Archangel on an expedition to the coast of Greenland to collect Walrus tusks, seal oil, skins, &c. On the voyage the crew murdered the Captain, and ended the tragedy by leaving two of the crew to perish on the shores of Greenland. One of them took on shore a gun, and before he died, succeeded in carving on the stock of the gun a history of the voyage, clearly touching upon the remains of the two were lying, and by the side of one of them the gun which told the whole tale. This the discoverers brought away with them, and on their return to Archangel it was placed before the authorities. The guilty parties were traced, but were at sea. On their return, however, they were apprehended on landing, tried and convicted, and are now waiting the execution of their sentence.—London Times.

La. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, of the U. S. Army, it is said, will not visit Europe until he has served the usual term of service required of graduates of the U. S. Military Academy.

At New Orleans, four persons have recently been convicted of murder, eight or ten more are about to be tried, and two terrible murders have just been committed.

Fixed in the Guanacaste River—Inauguration has been received in New York city from Cincinnati, is now thirty-three miles long. Passengers start there at 7 o'clock in the morning and reach New York at 5 o'clock in the evening. The fare through is $45.

At Mayville, on Friday last, two fires occurred which destroyed five frame stables. Thus Wm. W. W. C. B. Smith Corn Mill and part of R. S. Power's lumber yard. Total loss $9,500, partially insured.

There are three Virginia editors who are candidates for Congress at the next election—Snowden, of the Alexander's Gazette, Mann of the Harrisonburg Republican, and Moore, of the Parkersburg Gazette.

Communications.

To the Voters of Boyle County.

Since Mr. Lee declined the canvass for the Legislature in our county, a report has been put in circulation that the cause of his withdrawal, was my adoption of the platform and principles of the Temperance party for the county. In order to inform the public that this report is without any foundation, and entirely untrue, I have determined to publish this card. I stated in the outset of the canvass for the Legislature, that I did not intend to pledge myself to that party. I have no objection to this being made to them, either publicly or privately, any pledge upon the subject of Temperance. I stand now where I originally stood upon that subject, and any reports to the contrary are false. All the pledges I have ever made in regard to the question of Temperance, have been made to the people of the county, and not to any party or faction. I have said, publicly and privately, and said say to the people of the county, that if they signify, by their vote at the polls, that they are favorable to the passage of a Prohibitory Law upon the subject of liquor, to be submitted to a popular vote after its passage, I would feel inviolably bound, as the Representative of the county, to carry out faithfully and honestly, that instruction, unless it should be in conflict with the constitution; and I do not for a moment suppose the people would render any such unconstitutional instruction. I reserve, however, the right to vote my sentiments upon the law, in case it should be submitted to the people for approval or rejection. This is all I have said upon that subject, and any reports to the contrary have been made by designing men, with a view to injure me in the public estimation, and to misrepresent my position. My notions upon the question of license have undergone no change, nor have I made any statements from which men could have inferred that they had undergone a change. It is intimated in the hand-bill of Mr. Lee that I had at last assumed the proper position, and therefore he declined the canvass. The proposition made by one of their own men, to take a vote in August upon the Temperance question, was voted down in their meeting in January, and Mr. Lee, amongst the number, assisted in its defeat. If this is the proper doctrine, as he at last says it is, why did he contend against it so strenuously until Monday last, when he declined the canvass? Did he come to me, or I go to him?

I desire to inform the people, that any rumors that may be circulated, to the effect that I have changed my position upon the question of Temperance, are untrue. That I have adopted the Springfield platform of the Danville platform, is untrue. That I am under pledges to the absence party is untrue, and such rumors are only circulated for sinister purposes. I repeat what I have often said, that I will give the will of the people upon the great question of Temperance, and if they desire the passage of a Prohibitory Law, to be submitted to them after its adoption, I shall faithfully and honestly aid in its passage. This is the doctrine I have always advocated, and a doctrine which I have no doubt will meet with your approbation.

DEPOSIT BANK, OF DANVILLE.

LINCOLN COUNTY, MAY 18, 1853.

Messrs. Editors:—In your paper of the 6th of the present month, I observed a notice of the election of the second Board of Directors for the "Deposit Bank of Danville." Col. Clifton Rodas, Major John A. Barton, Charles Henderson, Esq. John R. Ford, Esq., and I. P. Fisher, Esq., compose the Board. Col. Rodas was unanimously elected President and Mr. Gabriel Rice Cashier.

No institution was ever in the hands of better or more responsible men. They are gentlemen of means, good practical sense, and fine business qualifications and habits.

As this is a new sort of Bank, permit me to say a few things in regard to it.

C. B. Wallace, Esq., when a member of the Kentucky Senate, in 1850, introduced and procured the charter for this institution. The charter will continue in force until the 1st day of June, 1860. It has all the powers of ordinary banking institutions, except the power to issue paper money. It has all the good, without any of the bad and dangerous features of other banks. It cannot break, and there is no chance to defraud stockholders and depositors. The charter secures the rights of each. No run can be made on this Bank as it issues no paper money.

This institution was organized and went into operation on the 1st day of March, 1853. Its success and usefulness thus far, have greatly exceeded the most sanguine expectations of its best friends. More than two thirds of the capital stock has been paid in, and the deposits now exceed seventy-five thousand dollars, most of which have been made for a specified time.

All of this is the work of three months. Judging from the past, we predict that it will soon become an institution of more real and substantial benefit to this region of the country, than any and all the banks in the State.

This bank pays from two to six per cent per annum on deposits, dependent on the length of time for which the deposits are made, or may remain. Where the deposit remains 30 days, the depositor gets at the rate of two per cent per annum. Should it remain 90 days he gets three per cent; if it remains six months he gets four per cent; and if it remains twelve months he gets six per cent. All the capital stock has been taken, and now commands a premium of $5 on the share. The stock cannot yield less than one per cent per month, which will be 12 per cent per annum. Money deposited can be checked out at any time. To the mechanic, merchant, farmer, trader, capitalist, widows, and gentlemen of leisure, this is an invaluable institution.

The terms of the charter, the character, ability, business habits, personal worth and responsibility of the President, Directors and Cashier, are a full and complete guarantee to all depositors.

Those who have cash capital, and are willing to take six per cent for its use, per annum, can get it by making a deposit for twelve months. Those who thus deposit will be relieved of the trouble and embarrassment of loaning their money—taking notes and security, and collecting the principal and interest. All the depositor will have to do, will be to check for the principal and interest whenever he desires to do so.

As a general rule, capitalists or those who loan their money, do not make more than six per cent per annum on all their money. They may loan some of it for even more than six per cent, whilst the residue is yielding nothing—is idle.

If deposited in this bank, the whole amount will bring six per cent per annum. The depositor will only be at the trouble of making his deposit, and then checking for either the principal or interest, or both, as he may choose.

I regard it as one of the very best institutions in the State. Many persons in this vicinity do not know there is such a bank, and there are still a larger number who are unapprised of the manner in which the business of the institution is conducted.

Respectfully, &c.,
FRANKLIN.

Railroad Charter.

AN ACT to incorporate the Danville, Somerset and Knoxville Railroad Company.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That all persons who shall become stockholders, pursuant to this act, shall be and are hereby made a body corporate, under the name of "the Danville, Somerset and Knoxville Railroad Company," with power to construct and maintain a railway, with a double or single track, with such appendages as may be deemed necessary for the convenient use of the same, commencing at any eligible point in or near the town of Danville, in Boyle County, Kentucky; thence the most practicable route, passing through or near Somerset, in Pulaski County, to the Tennessee line, in the direction to Knoxville, in Tennessee.

2. The capital stock of said company shall be one million of dollars, to be increased if necessary to complete the road, which capital shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, and be deemed personal property.

3. That William Fox, John G. Lair, C. W. Wait, W. P. Ingram, John S. Kendrick, J. Vickery, Horace Withers, A. J. James and R. Gosselt of Pulaski County; Thos. Helm, A. G. Huffman, R. Carson, Hardin Weatherford, William Tate and Joseph Cooper, of Lincoln County; James Barbour, J. T. Boyle, Joshua F. Bell, F. T. Fox, James Kinard, A. L. Caldwell, Thos. Mitchell, J. P. Mitchell and W. C. Anderson, of Boyle County, shall be commissioners for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of the corporation, agreeable to the provisions of this act.

4. It shall be the duty of said commissioners, or any three of them, within two years after the passage of this act, to give notice in the Danville Tribune, the Somerset Gazette, and Garrard Banner, and such other newspapers as may be deemed proper, once a week for three weeks in succession, of the time and place of opening books for the subscription of said stock, and they shall open books at all such places as they may deem fit; at each or all places specified, one or more of said commissioners shall attend on the day fixed, and for three or more days successively, and for the space of six hours of each day shall continue to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, from all persons or companies who will subscribe thereto, in conformity with the provisions of this act.

5. Each subscriber, at the time he subscribes, shall pay to said commissioners, or their agents appointed to receive such subscription, either in money or a note, negotiable and payable at some bank in sixty days after date, or longer, at the option of said commissioners or their agents, the sum of two dollars on every share subscribed by him; and the residue thereof shall be paid in such installments and at such times as may be required by the president and directors of said company.

6. If, at the expiration of the time mentioned in the fourth section of this act, (viz: three days,) it shall appear that fifty thousand dollars or more shall have been subscribed to the capital stock of the corporation, or as soon thereafter as fifty thousand dollars or upwards shall have been subscribed to the capital stock of said corporation, the books shall be closed.

Later from the Texas Gold Mines.

By the arrival at New Orleans of the Swampish Mexico, Galveston dates to the 10th inst. were received:

A gentleman from Lockhart informs the editor of the Galveston News that a party of citizens of that place, (some of whom had experience in the California mines) recently returned from the reported gold region of Texas. They state that gold is found in the mountains between the Llano and San Saba, some 70 or 80 miles northwest of Lockhart. They found gold not only on the surface, but also by digging, and they brought back some lumps, valued from $50 to $150.

After a rather unaccountable silence on the exciting topic of the Texas gold diggings, the Austin Gazette now gives the following strong endorsement of the most favorable reports. The public have looked to the Austin papers for information, and they will finally give it, with the assurance that they will "practice no concealment to gratify the avarice of speculators."

"Considerable excitement is prevailing throughout Western Texas, on the subject of the gold discoveries in our neighborhood; and we have had several letters, and observe notices in our exchanges, asking information on the subject. That there is gold, and in great quantities, on the tributaries of the Colorado a short distance above this city, we cannot longer entertain a doubt, for some specimens shown us are of the most beautiful character. We understand, upon good authority, that one specimen has been found worth $24 worth of gold.

"This report we have no hesitation in crediting, as it was brought by a gentleman of undoubted veracity. The number of persons now at the mines is very considerable, set down by reports at from two to five hundred, most of whom are greatly encouraged by their success. Persons are flocking in to the mining districts from all parts of the country, and we shall not be surprised to hear soon of discoveries equal in importance to the gold stories of California.

"The district of country in which gold has been found is a very extensive one, and easy of access from this city. Our readers may rely upon it, that we will give them, from time to time, such information on this subject, and such only as can be relied upon as true. We shall practice no concealment to gratify the avarice of speculators, nor unduly magnify the extent of the gold discoveries, to mislead the unwary."

Capt. Southern, of Indianapolis, received a letter from a gentleman of undoubted veracity, written from Hamilton's Valley, in which the writer says:

"I am at work, digging gold in a neighborhood where there are about three hundred persons, who, with myself, are averaging from $5 to $6 per day, and the prospects are certainly improving."

We are assured, by reliable authority, that the writer of the above statement may be strictly relied upon.—N. O. Delta.

FURTHER FROM TEXAS.—The Gold Discoveries, &c.—New Orleans papers of Friday contain Texas news to the 10th inst. The most favorable accounts as to the gold discoveries are given by some, but are fully contradicted by others.

The Victoria Advocate is of opinion that there is more hunting and speculation than gold.

A sea serpent had made its appearance in Brazos River.

Considerable damage had been done by the late storm at Pass Cavallo and at Corpus Christi.

INJURY TO THE TOBACCO CROP.—The Russellville Herald of the 18th says: "We learn from farmers from different sections, that there has been a very great destruction of tobacco plants in our county during the past week or so—caused by the depredations of a bug or fly. It is said that in the Northern part of Logan, and in the adjoining portion of Butler, the destruction has been almost total. In the southern division of the county the loss is not so great, but we hear serious complaints from all sections."

TAKEN UP
BY JOHN HALLAN, on his farm, lying on the waters of Salt River, in Boyle County, on the 15th day of April, 1853, one RED STEER, with crop in the left ear, under-bit and slit in the right—supposed to be 2 years old, and valued by John P. Gregory and David C. Gregory at Ten Dollars; also, at the same time and place, one BRINDLE STEER, with some white under the belly, half crop in the right ear—supposed to be 3 years old, and valued by John P. Gregory and David C. Gregory at Ten Dollars.

Given under my hand, this 17th day of May, 1853.

DR. GEOGHEGAN'S
Extract of Hydropiper,
A CURE FOR
Dyspepsia, Scrofula & Skin Diseases.
DR. GEOGHEGAN, (a graduate of the University of Louisville, and a Practitioner of high standing,) after many years of hard study and numerous experiments, has succeeded in obtaining an essential property from the Hydropiper, which, combined with other Vegetable ingredients, set forth in his published recipe, forms a most Valuable and Efficacious Remedy for many Chronic Diseases. Unlike Sarsaparilla, it is quick in action, the first bottle often producing wonderful results, as in the case of the negro girl of Mrs. Simmons, of Louisville, who was Relieved of Blindness in One Week.

This is no humbug, no catch-penny, neither is it a nostrum, as
The Recipe Accompanies Each Bottle.
That it is a most Valuable Medicine is evident from the fact of its being Prescribed by Physicians;

And from the numerous testimonials from the first citizens and Physicians of Kentucky. In short, it has excited the wonder and admiration of all who used it, and it now stands at the head of all Remedies for the cure of the following Diseases: Dyspepsia, Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swelling, Blis, Pimples, Itch, Tetters, Ringworm, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Sores, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Fever Sores, Relics of Syphilis, all Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, Hip Disease, all Kidney Diseases, Seminal Emissions, all Female Diseases, Liver Disease, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Night Sweats, Water Brash, Heart Burn, Negro Consumption, and as a general Tonic and Purifier of the Blood, it has no equal.

The Agents are in possession of testimonials (which may be seen at any time) from men holding the highest offices in the country. The afflicted are desired to call and get a circular. To whom all orders for Hydropiper or Agencies should be addressed.

THE TRIBUNE.

DANVILLE, KY.,
Friday Morning, May 27, 1853.

Danville and Knoxville Railroad.—Messrs. Jno. H. Crozier, C. Wallace, M. B. Prichard, C. H. Coffin and Wm. B. Reese, Jr., a committee appointed by the citizens of Knoxville, to visit the points on the line of the proposed railroad, and consult with the people on the business and interests of said road, were in our city last week. They spoke in the most encouraging manner of the practicability and prospects of the road.

A company of Engineers engaged in surveying the line of the proposed railroad from this place to Knoxville with the Nashville and Louisville railroad, reached our city on Wednesday last. As they left the next morning, we did not have an opportunity of learning any particulars of their survey.

Masonic Procession.—The members of Lincoln Lodge, No. 63, of Free and Accepted Masons, intend celebrating the Anniversary of St. John the Evangelist, on Friday, the 24th of June next, in Stanford, Ky., by a public procession, oration, &c. A dinner will be prepared at the hotel of A. Carson, Esq. The members of neighboring lodges, and of the fraternity generally, are invited to attend.

Strawberries.—Mrs. John Tompkins will accept our acknowledgments for a present of very delicious Strawberries.

Fine Strawberries.—Mr. G. H. Withers, of the "Boyle Gardens," has our thanks for a basket of fine Strawberries—a new and rare variety—"McAvoy's $100 Prize Seedling." These Strawberries were, by far, the largest we have ever seen, (150 to the half gallon), and in point of flavor were truly delicious.

Serious Accident.—Mr. J. P. Baldrick, of this place, while seining for minnows, in Clark's Run, on Wednesday last, slipped on a large stone, and was very severely injured. He is still very low, and though his situation is critical, strong hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Our neighbor of the Ploughboy, after deploring the fact that no Democrat has yet been found to run against Clement S. Hill, Esq., the Whig nominee for Congress, uses the following language:

"If our friends do not attend to this matter within a very short time, we shall take the track ourselves, with the certainty of beating Mr. Hill at least 400 votes." Well, that rather "takes us." And he gives the Democrats a "very short time," too, to select their man, and if they don't, why he'll "take the track," and beat Mr. Hill 400 votes. Now, neighbor, Mr. Hill wouldn't run against you—he would decline doubtless—rather than to go through the labors of a canvass with the "certainty" of being beaten "400 votes." You'd better write to him, perhaps, and see if he won't withdraw at the mere idea of having such odds against him.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church (old school) met at Philadelphia on the 20th inst. Rev. President Young, of this place, was chosen Moderator.

The General Assembly of the same church (new school) met at Buffalo on the 20th. Rev. Dr. Allen, of Lane Seminary, was elected Moderator.

One day last week, a couple were united in the bonds of wedlock, at the Clerk's office, in this county—the groom being eighteen or nineteen years of age, and the blushing bride, (the possessor, we understand, of six children,) about thirty-five. The former brought a certificate from his mother, testifying that she was aware of his absence from the maternal roof. After the performance of the ceremony the groom led his "better half" down street, by the hand, apparently much pleased with his bargain.

The Quickest Trip on Record.—The great steamer "Eclipse" left New Orleans on the 14th, and made the trip thence to Louisville in 4 days, 9 hours and 30 minutes.

The "A. L. Shattell," also on a brag run, left New Orleans on the 17th, and reached Louisville in 4 days, 9 hours and 29 minutes.

Just one minute difference between the time of the two boats in a distance of 1500 miles. There is considerable excitement at Louisville on the subject, and many who bet on the Eclipse are unwilling to pay until fully satisfied of the triumph of the Shattell.

The Steamer Eclipse made her last trip from New Orleans to Louisville in 4 days 9 hours and 30 minutes. This is the quickest trip ever made.

MAYSVILLE AND LEXINGTON RAILROAD.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Maysville and Lexington Railroad Company, on the 11th, Henry Waller, Esq., was re-elected President, and Jos. F. Brodick, Secretary and Treasurer. The Maysville Eagle of Tuesday says: The lesser tunnel on the Maysville and Lexington railroad, on the north side of Licking, is through. The event, like all similar ones, was made the occasion of a happy jollification among the workmen. The larger tunnel is very far advanced, and will be through in some six or eight weeks. The iron and locomotives for this road have been purchased, and portions of it will be in operation in a short time.

Covington and Lexington Railroad.—The Covington Journal of last week says that ten miles of rails are down on the Covington and Lexington railroad. The track layers will go through the second tunnel early in the coming week. Passenger cars will soon be ready for the road. We suppose that when some 20 miles of the road are finished, regular trips will be made for the accommodation of the public.

Boys Scared Off.—Lynn Boyd and H. C. Barnett, both Democrats, have declined the canvass for Congress in the 1st District, and Dr. Isaac Burnett, another Democrat, is announced as the candidate of the party. The Locos of that region seem to be in quite a snarl.

Danville and McMinnville Railroad.—The following letter, which we find in the Lexington Observer of Wednesday, will be read with interest by our railroad friends:

SPARTA, TENN., May 15, 1853.
 JOSEPH WASSON, Esq.,
 President Lex and Dan R. R. Co.,
 W. E. Ferguson, the bearer of these lines, has been at this place some days, attending a meeting of our Board of Directors with a view of contracting for the construction of the South Western Railroad, on behalf of himself, and S. Chamberlain, of Cleveland, Ohio, under the style of Wm. E. Ferguson & Co. We have on this day, made a contract with him for the construction and equipment of our road from McMinnville to the Kentucky State line in the Direction of Danville. This renders the success of our enterprise entirely certain. We shall immediately proceed to locate the road; and having crossed the Rubicon, we intend to carry the war into Africa, and conquer or die. The contractors, who are able, efficient, and reliable men, will commence the work upon the whole of our line immediately after the location. I hope your board will take the most active measures of co-operation, as you can now positively rely on our end of the road being speedily constructed.
 Respectfully yours,
 A. CULLUM

The Paris Citizen contains a long list of liberal premiums offered by the Bourbon county Agricultural Society, for the next annual Fair, which is to be held on the 27th, 28th, 29th, and 30th days of September next.

MOBILE AND OHIO RAILROAD.—The entire road from Mobile to the Kentucky line is under contract—a distance of 453 miles—except a few miles of light work in Tennessee and Mississippi, and can be constructed in six months. Nine-tenths of the contracts have been taken by planters along the road, who have in all cases given bonds for the performance of the work on or before the first of November, 1854.

The Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad has been completed to the Tennessee river, making a direct communication by railroad and steamboat. An excursion is to take place on Thursday.

ONE MONTH'S CALAMITY.—Within the space of one month past, the public press has recorded the destruction of the steamship Independence in the Pacific; the Ocean wave on the Lakes, the Jinny Lind in California, the awful railroad calamities at Chicago and Norwalk, and the loss of the ship William and Mary at sea near the Bahama Islands. These six disasters have hurried into eternity not less than five hundred souls! In addition to these, there have been numerous minor accidents of various kinds, which would greatly swell the fearful aggregate.

A telegraphic dispatch from Cincinnati, of the 20th, announces that the Rev. Dr. Tomlinson, a Methodist minister, committed suicide at Neville, Ohio, that day. No particulars are given. It is feared that the gentleman who has thus fallen is the Rev. J. S. Tomlinson, formerly of Augusta College, in this State—a man distinguished for his eloquence and scholarly attainments.

Fugitive Slave Case at Pittsburg.—Much excitement was created at Pittsburg, on Friday last week, by the arrest of a negro named Calvin Jones, a waiter, as an alleged fugitive from slavery. He was claimed by Henry B. Chiles, of Memphis, agent for Messrs. Farrington, of that city, to whom, it was alleged, the slave belonged. Chiles, in his deposition, averred that Jones escaped in 1848 or 1849. In the examination before the U. S. Commissioner it was proved by several witnesses that Jones had resided in Pittsburg for the last six or seven years. He was discharged.

SOUTHWESTERN RAILROAD.—The Sparta (Tenn.) Times of the 14th, says that the contract for the making of the Southwestern Railroad from McMinnville to the Tennessee state line, in the direction of Danville, Ky., has been given to Messrs. Ferguson, Chamberlain, & Co., an able and thorough-going northern company, who will prosecute the work with vigor.

DANVILLE AND KNOXVILLE RAILROAD.—By reference to an advertisement in another column, it will be seen that the books for subscriptions of stock to the Danville and Knoxville Railroad, will be opened at Danville, Stanford, and Somerset, on the 13th day of June next, under the direction of the Commissioners for each county, named in the charter. We also publish a portion of the charter of said road, to which we invite the attention of our readers.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the Annual Commencement of the Western Military Institute at Drennon Spring, on the 23d of June next. The occasion will, as heretofore, doubtless be one of great interest.

The Cincinnati Gazette says there are in Covington six public schools, sixteen teachers, and about three thousand pupils. The average yearly cost of tuition for each child is one dollar and a half. A central school house is now being built, which will cost over three thousand dollars.

THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD.—The increase of travel upon this road, within the last few weeks, has been immense, and yet steady. It indicates it as the favorite route, showing that all that was wanted, was that the road should be known to be appreciated. There is no reason why it should not be great. It is the shortest route to the Atlantic. It is acknowledged by all who have traveled over it, to be one of the safest and best laid roads in the country, and it is through a country of as great natural beauty as any portion of our vast and varied land can present. The promise now, for the Baltimore and Ohio railroad is one of glorious success.

Our neighbor of the Ploughboy is laboring hard to nominate himself for Congress, in opposition to C. S. Hill, Esq., the Whig nominee. Isn't it provoking that the party don't take the hint, and call him out, when he is so anxious to make sacrifices to serve it? Go it, Gibbons, in the days of your juvenility; but remember that it will be an up-hill business.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—The June number of this periodical has been received. Its engravings are rare and beautiful specimens of art, while the sketches, poems, &c., with which its pages are filled, cannot fail to suit the dispositions of all its readers—from grave to gay, from lively to severe. Peterson commences a new volume with the July number, and we are still authorized to receive the names of subscribers at the lowest club price, $1 25 per annum.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for June, we regard as a rich number, and we believe its numerous patrons will agree with us in saying so. The engravings are numerous and well executed—the literary articles are interesting and varied, and in every department Godey evinces a determination to spare neither pains nor expense in making his Book worthy the large patronage it receives. A new volume commences with the July number, and we are still authorized to receive the names of subscribers at the lowest club price, $1 25 per annum.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.—This pioneer in the magazine world still sustains the high reputation it has always borne, and to which it has so greatly added with the last year. The June number we find to be quite equal, in every respect, to any previous one, and, we believe, each number is an improvement upon its predecessor. It is beautifully embellished and contains a very large amount of useful instruction, as well as light reading. The number for July will herald in a new volume, and being authorized so to do, we will forward subscribers' names $2 each.

THE NEW QUARTERS.—The new silver coin, fresh from Uncle Sam's Mint, is in circulation. The quarters, which we have seen, are a shade larger in diameter and not quite so thick as the old ones. The eagle is surrounded with rays, and each side of the date is ornamented with an arrow head.

Since friend Gibbons has announced the probability of his running for Congress and beating Mr. Hill 400 votes, we guess we had better get our hand in practice to write, "We are indebted to the Hon. Mr. Gibbons for valuable public documents." "Eight dollars a day and roast beef" will not, we hope, cause our neighbor to forget his old friends of the craft when he goes to Washington as 'M. C.'

The Democrats of the ninth congressional District have nominated Hon. James Rice for Congress.

THE NORWALK RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Tucker, the engineer of the train which ran off the drawbridge at Norwalk, causing such a great loss of life, has been bailed in the sum of $5,000. He still suffers severely from the injuries he received by the accident.

THE NEW YORK AND ERIE RAILROAD.—"AGAINST THE WORLD."—Such is the caption of an article in the Oswego Gazette. Judging from recent accidents, a contemporary observes, the same could be said of most of the roads.

LOVE AND SUICIDE.—We learn that Mr. Thomas Brandon, of the firm of Anderson & Brandon, merchants of Paducah, committed suicide last Tuesday morning by shooting himself. The only cause assigned by his neighbors was disappointed love.

THE REWARD OF HIS TREACHERY.—Parson Brownlow, of the Knoxville (Tenn.) Whig, it is stated has been appointed by Secretary Davis Commissioner to superintend the improvements on the Tennessee river.

Mr. Robert Crittenden, of Kentucky, a son of the Hon. John J. Crittenden, was married at Washington City, on the evening of the 17th, to Miss Harriet Burnley, second daughter of A. T. Burnley, Esq., one of the proprietors of the Washington Republic.

AWFUL DISASTER AT SEA.—The ship William and Mary, sailed from Liverpool for New Orleans on the 24th of March last, and was totally lost on the 31 day of the present month. There were 208 passengers on board, nearly all of which were drowned.

The Oldest Woman in the World.—The Charleston (S. C.) Standard thinks that Mrs. Singleton, now living in the Williamsburg district, in that State, is the oldest woman in the world. She is now in the one hundred and thirty-first year of her age.

The common council of Tampico having refused to acknowledge Santa Anna as President, the whole body were made prisoners by Gen. Wolf, the military governor of that place, and sent to Mexico.

To the Patrons of Art and Merit.
 A few days ago I saw a Daguerrean advertisement in the Tribune, and thought I might call and see the specimens—without the least idea of slandering. Judge of my surprise, when ushered into a very handsome Saloon, ornamented with taste and performed by rare and fragrant flowers. I also found Mr. DUNCAN, a perfect gentleman. His specimens are, I can say with truth, (and I am something of a judge,) equal to the best I have seen in the East or West. His style so pleased me, that I sat for three pictures to give my friends.

Mr. D. has a fine assortment of cases of different sizes, and I think merits the encouragement, that genius has always met with from the noble minded and liberal inhabitants of Boyle county. He may reckon on my interest while he resides in Danville.

A LADY OBSERVER.
 Correspondence of the Tribune.
 CRAB ORCHARD, KY., May 23, 1853.
 MESSRS. ZIMMERMAN & SON:
 Gentlemen: The remains of Mr. W. A. PRATHER, (who died in your city on Wednesday, the 13th inst.) were brought to this place on Thursday, the 18th, and was interred by the Masonic Fraternity, of which he was a worthy member.

On Saturday, the 21st inst. we had quite a fine shooting scrape, between Mr. Thomas Shanks and Mr. John Severance. Some 4 or 5 shots were exchanged, but no damage done. The matter will undergo an investigation before the Police Judge, as soon as an important witness returns from Lexington.

CRAB ORCHARD, May 25, 1853.
 MESSRS. ZIMMERMAN:
 Since writing the above, Shanks and Severance have been held to bail to answer at the next term of our Circuit Court—the former in the sum of $1,000 and the latter in the sum of $200.

ARRESTS.—A telegraphic dispatch was received in the city yesterday, stating that Officer Howard had succeeded in arresting Eli and Thomas Holzclaw in Missouri, and that he is now on his way here with the two individuals in custody. It will be well remembered by many that Eli and Henry were implicated in the affair in the summer of 1850, that resulted in the killing of Joseph Howard by Henry Holzclaw, who is still a fugitive from justice.

We are tired of reading articles on Mrs. Stowe's reception in England. Who cares how those receive Mrs. Stowe, who have hanged Washington, had they lived in his day and been able to catch him.

 Sold cherished image of a long nursing joy—
 "Thou sweet remembrance of bygone days!"
 How speaks thy spirit in that beaming eye! And sweet, sweet smile that o'er each feature plays.
 The same bright curls upon thy broad white brow,
 The old expression struggling now to flee—
 And those rich lips speak to my feelings now,
 Till my hushed heart grows pulses in the gloom.
 Undying treasure! child of Light and Art! Lone, last and relic of my summer hours—
 Setting anew old gems around my heart.
 And breathing beauty o'er life's faded flowers.
